Company: ACDI/VOCA

Location: Zambia

Category: other-general

Overview

Since 1963 and in 148 countries, ACDI/VOCA has empowered people in developing and transitional nations to succeed in the global economy. Based in Washington, D.C., ACDI/VOCA is a nonprofit international development organization that designs and delivers technical and management solutions in agriculture, economic growth, and resilience to promote economic prosperity and social inclusion.

Chief of Party, Zambia

ACDI/VOCA is seeking a Chief of Party for an upcoming Agricultural Diversification Activity in Zambia funded by USAID. The anticipated program will transform Zambia's agricultural sector into an efficient, equitable, and sustainable producer of high quality and nutritious food for consumption, sale, and trade.

The Chief of Party will provide oversight to programmatic and operations activities including procurement, personnel, and financial activities directly linked to this award. The program is anticipated to start in 2024 and this position will be based in Zambia.

Responsibilities

Manage and supervise work of all local project staff and subcontractors and local and international consultants

Lead the overall strategic planning, implementation, and management of the program

Develop an effective integrated approach of program components, participants, government actors, private sector partners, and other stakeholders

Ensure quality control and timeliness of all deliverables

Serve as principal liaison with USAID staff, institutions, and client country partners to exchange information and develop professional relationships

Monitor program indicators, evaluate program results, and guide program implementation to achieve maximum impact

Spearhead strategy development and utilize managerial tools and frameworks to improve the ability of the team to achieve project goals successfully and sustainably

Facilitate the development of the program's evolving theory of change, overseeing the implementation of the work plan and tracking progress towards core indicators and learning objectives

Develop systems that support collaborating, learning and adapting (CLA) approach, including establishing a culture of adaptive management

Mentor, coach and empower project team leads and local subcontracting partners

Administer the program's financial oversight and procedures, ensuring compliance with established ACIDI/VOCA's accounting principles and USAID regulations

Identify issues and risks related to program implementation in a timely manner and suggest appropriate program adjustments

Represent ACIDI/VOCA and the program to the public and donor community

Qualifications

Bachelor's degree in food systems, business administration, international development, finance, or related field required; master's degree preferred.

Minimum 10 years of experience in agriculture, value chain development and/or economic development, promoting private sector engagement and/or access to finance.

Previous leadership experience for projects with similar magnitude and complexity.

Previous experience working on nutrition and/or health related projects (desired).

Knowledge of and experience with USAID rules and regulations.

Proven ability to collaborate successfully with host-country government officials, financial institutions, international donors, and private sector stakeholders.

Demonstrated experience in program designs, planning and implementation of similar projects.

Fluency in English required.

Zambian nationals are strongly encouraged to apply.

Please apply online at . The applications will be reviewed promptly upon receipt, only finalists will be contacted. ACDI/VOCA is an equal opportunity employer. Women, minorities and people from diverse groups are encouraged to apply. ACDI/VOCA will never request payment or charge a fee to apply for any position.
